

One of the benefits of being a client of an Approach-managed retro group is that you receive detailed monthly claim-based analytics.

These reports include cost assessments as well as accident and injury trend information. Reviewing this data with your Approach Retro Coordinator will help you identify and drive resources to reduce or eliminate hazards. These reports can also be customized to meet your organization's specific data needs.

Sample Report Components

