

Our crisis response team is ready to respond to emergencies, no matter when or where they happen. Approach is available through our 24-hour crisis response team at 206-812-3850. We're there to support the injured employee, family, co-workers, and the company as a whole, while ensuring that important legal and regulatory steps aren't missed along the way.

Crisis Services Include

These services are meant to support your organization no matter the situation. Our comprehensive team are experts at helping you navigate the in's and out's of a serious or catastrophic accident.